EDITION 01

Welcome to Texas Gaushala! Step into a sanctuary where modern care meets ancient tradition. Since 2020, we have been a dedicated home for indigenous cows and diverse farm life, including our resident peacocks and ducks. Today, our sanctuary is proud to nurture around 60 cows in a natural, healthy environment designed for their well-being and your peace of mind. We believe that true change is possible when hearts and hands work together. Driven by innovation and a deep-rooted passion for animal welfare, we invite you to join hands with us. Whether you are here to connect with our animals through therapeutic cow cuddling or to support our mission through cow adoption and sponsorship, your presence makes a difference. Thank you for being part of our journey toward a more compassionate and sustainable future.

OUR DEDICATED TEAM

JANUARY 2026

Community Spirit: Gaushala Pongal Celebration

On January 17, the Gaushala hosted a vibrant Pongal celebration from 10:00 AM to 12:30 PM, bringing together 30 volunteers to honor the harvest season. In many Indian cultures, the third day of the harvest festival, Pongal, is celebrated as Mattu Pongal, a day dedicated entirely to honoring and thanking cattle for their essential role in agriculture.

Sacred Pooja: A morning ceremony held at the Gaushala to offer thanks and seek blessings for the cattle and the coming year. Prasad Preparation: Volunteers collaborated to cook traditional Pongal over an open traditional fire. The sweet offering was prepared as Prasad, symbolizing prosperity and communal harmony. The gathering was a beautiful reminder of our roots, blending selfless service with cultural devotion.

Warmth and Worship: Lohri Celebrations at the Gaushala

The spirit of Lohri brought a glow to the Gaushala on January 17, as our community gathered to mark the winter solstice with tradition and togetherness. 30 volunteers came together to celebrate the festival of fire and harvest. The evening was centered around the sacred campfire, which was offered to the Lord as a gesture of gratitude for the season's blessings. As the flames rose, volunteers participated in traditional rituals, offering grains and sweets to the fire, symbolizing the casting away of the old and the welcoming of a prosperous new beginning. Beyond the rituals, the event served as a wonderful opportunity for our volunteers to bond over the warmth of the hearth, sharing stories and festive cheer in the peaceful presence of the cows.

A Divine Encounter: Cows Visit Meenakshi Temple

The spirit of the harvest festival reached a spiritual crescendo on January 17, as the Meenakshi Temple hosted a magnificent gathering centered on the sacred bond between humanity and cattle. An estimated 1,000 devotees joined in a heartfelt celebration of life and abundance.

Gau Pooja: In a beautiful display of reverence, cows were honored with traditional rituals. Devotees offered prayers and sought blessings, acknowledging the cow as a symbol of the Earth's selfless giving. Feeding the Sacred: Following the Pooja, devotees participated in mass cow feeding, offering fresh greens and treats, embodying the festival's message of gratitude.

The presence of the cows within the temple precincts created a serene, auspicious environment that left the 1,000-strong crowd deeply moved.

The morning was dedicated to the time-honored tradition of Gau Pooja. Members of the com prayers and traditional decorations to the cows, celebrating them as the "Gomata" (Mother C backbone of agricultural prosperity. The highlight for many was the cow feeding, where famil directly participated in the harvest spirit by offering fresh fodder and treats. This act of Gau cows) served as a poignant reminder of the gratitude that defines the Sankranti season.

A Day of Joy: Family Field Trip to the Gaushala

On January 17, the Gaushala opened its gates for a special Field Trip, welcoming a warm and lively group of friends and their families. It was a day dedicated to connection with nature, with our sacred animals, and with one another. The atmosphere was filled with laughter and curiosity as visitors of all ages explored the grounds. Children, in particular, delighted in the chance to interact with the animals, learning firsthand about the importance of Gau Seva (service to cows) and the role these gentle creatures play in our heritage. Whether it was feeding the cattle, walking through the serene pastures, or simply enjoying a picnic under the open sky, the sense of community was undeniable. The field trip served as a beautiful reminder that the Gaushala is not just a sanctuary for animals, but a place for families to gather, learn, and create lasting memories.
